Art Unit: 3728

1) The prior art cited in the parent application has been considered by the examiner.

2) Claims 10 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In line 3 of claim 10, it is unclear what Applicant is attempting to cover with the limitation, "performing a canister body". Perhaps Applicant intended to claim "pre-forming a canister body".

3) The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. § 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4) Claims 10 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 103(a) as being unpatentable over Halene (4,667,815) in view of Jacobellis (4,288,894). In the reference of Halene, there is provided a canister 1, wafer baffles/boxes 5 corresponding to the interior diameter of the canister being stacked in the canister, lids/upper parts 10 being closed on the bottoms/lower parts 15 of the wafer baffles, and a porous tube 7 passing through an aperture of each wafer baffle. The baffles and tube are enclosed in the canister; ends 2,3 are used to close the canister. This construction defines a metal hydride container.

Art Unit: 3728

Although the reference of Halene substantially discloses that the ends 2,3 of the canister and the central portion 4 are separate parts which are attached together, the reference of Jacobellis at column 1, lines 25-31 suggests that applying closed ends of a canister as separate parts is both too expensive and time consuming, whereas forming the closed ends by heat spinning/hot rolling is inexpensive and more convenient (col. 1, lines 44-50). Accordingly, it would have been obvious in view of Jacobellis to have made the closed ends 2,3 of the canister 2-4 of Halene by hot spinning/heat rolling.
